CORAM : HONOURABLE MR.JUSTICE M.R. SHAH

Date : 29/12/2005

ORAL JUDGMENT

1. The petitioner states that through inadvertence her date of birth is wrongly mentioned in the Passport and the respondent authority has refused to entertain her request to correct the said mistake. According to the petitioner, on the basis of the Birth Certificate issued by the Competent Authority, the correct date of birth is 10/10/1985 instead of 24/6/1985 as mentioned in the passport.

2. The learned counsel for the respondent states that only on the basis of material given by the petitioner the date of birth was recorded in the passport. He further stated that no change in the passport is effected, but for making any correction in the passport, a new passport is normally issued by the authority with correct details if the authority is satisfied with the genuineness of the data to be corrected.

3. Having heard the parties and looking to the facts and circumstances and also the material placed on record, the respondent is directed to look into the case of the petitioner on the basis of the evidence already adduced or on production of original certificate/s issued by competent authority which may be adduced by the petitioner in support of her case to correct the date of birth as mentioned above and on production of the documents which were produced while obtaining the earlier passport. The respondent shall take appropriate decision in accordance with law after considering the relevant evidence adduced before him and shall pass an appropriate order as expeditiously as possible.

4. Accordingly, the petition is allowed to the aforesaid extent. Rule is made absolute to the above extent.

Direct Service is permitted.
